

BRIEF LOCALS.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1898.

Dr. D. J. Brannen has been on the sick list this week.

Miss S. L. Wynne is spending the week in Williams.

E. M. Doe spent Thursday in Williams on legal business.

T. E. Pollock left yesterday on a business trip to Phoenix.

E. E. Ellinwood left Wednesday on a ten days' professional trip to Kingman.

Mrs. F. W. Sisson and children left Monday for a visit to her old home in Illinois.

F. H. Coon left Wednesday for Minneapolis, Minn., which place he intends making his future home.

Mrs. George Hoxworth left Thursday for a month's visit with his daughter, Mrs. J. Vining, in Denver.

Reese M. Ling, the democratic nominee for district attorney for Yavapai county, spent a day here this week.

Miss Alva Mabel Messenger, the harpist, after a month's pleasant stay here, left Monday for Albuquerque.

The duck hunting season is here and our hunters are leaving for the lakes, which are said to be covered with ducks.

Fred Hochderffer and wife arrived from Missouri Thursday. It is their intention to make this their future home.

Work on the water system for Flagstaff is progressing finely. About five miles of pipe is laid and the work on the gallery at the spring will be completed next week. It is expected that water will be running through the pipe in Flagstaff within sixty days from now.

Oscar Gibson went to Winslow Wednesday to hold the funeral services for the 14-months-old daughter of Engineer Richter.

In our report of the republican convention the nomination of E. M. Doe for district attorney was inadvertently overlooked.

Misses Mamie E. Plank and Winifred Smith, after an enjoyable summer here, returned to their homes in Phoenix yesterday.

Florence Donahue left Thursday for Chicago, where he will obtain the services of a specialist for the treatment of his injured eye.

The regular term of the district court for Apache county will be held at St. Johns next week. T. C. Bunch will attend the session.

Gov. Murphy has asked the government to cede all public lands to the territory, and that a reasonable sum be appropriated for well boring.

Mrs. B. F. Wisheart and Mrs. M. J. Kennedy left Wednesday morning for a visit to New Castle, Ind. They will probably be absent during the winter.

Wm. Mayflower and wife left Monday for the Beaver creek soda springs, where Mr. Mayflower will test the virtue of the water for an attack of rheumatism.

F. S. Breen, the superintendent of the San Francisco Mountain forest reserve, returned from Williams Saturday and left Monday to inspect the Prescott forest reserve.

On next Sunday Rev. Mr. Logie, a visiting clergyman, will preach at the Presbyterian church both morning and evening. All are cordially invited to attend. The union services announced for next Sunday will not be held.